

Huns Massacre Duds in Highlight Of Girls League Softball Action

Top tilt of the week in Girls' Softball action saw the Huns pound the Duds relentlessly for a 5-0 victory Thursday night at McMasters' Park.

In pasting the Duds, the Huns scored 13 runs in the first inning, 14 in the third, seven in the fourth and five in the fifth.

The hapless Duds got one in the second, one in the fourth and two in the fifth.

Marcela Iwata and Marsha Post both had four hits apiece for the Huns, but their stock work was overshadowed by Mary Wood's pair of homers.

Sue Campbell also homered for the winners.

are tied for first place in the summer league. Each has won two and lost none.

Girls Slate Includes All Star Contest

A double round robin schedule will be set up by the Torrance Recreation Department for the summer Girls' Softball League, which started last week.

Each team in the six-team loop will play the others twice, with the season winding up on Aug. 25. On Aug. 28, the league champs will meet the best players on other teams in the all star tilt.

Following the game, a watermelon feed will close out the season. All games are set for Walteria and McMasters' Parks.

GOLF SENSE

By STEPHEN CONNOLLY
Pro, Torrance Fairways

Iron shots fall into two categories—long irons and short irons.

Long iron shots are accomplished with the low-numbered clubs, 2, 3, 4 and 5. The short iron shots are made with the high-numbered irons, 6, 7, 8, 9 and wedge.

The range for a long iron shot varies. But a good distance for an iron shot, for example, would be 175 yards. Here, the golfer would use a 3 iron. He should not hurry his backswing and should remember that the completion of the arc of the swing is the most definite action in successfully executing the shot.

Keep Arms Compact

Great care is taken to keep the arms compact on the back swing and downswing, so that the blade will bite crisply into the turf after the ball is hit. Back spin, which holds the ball on the green when it hits, is the product of a bold hit on the downswing.

For the short irons, say a 7, the arc is made more upright with the body facing open to the line of flight. Delayed action with the right hand and wrists brings about the best results, which should make the shot accurate and brighten the chance for a "birdie" putt on the hole.

Watch Wrists

Be sure your wrists do not cock too soon. Also, clean the grooves of the face of the club so that it grips the ball easier and responds to the action of the hands and wrists more readily.

Next week: Putting.

HARDTOPS, THRILL SHOW ON TONIGHT

Hardtop racing and a fireworks display are on tap tonight at the Gardena Stadium, as the Western Avenue oval terminates its long racing week end.

A thrill show will include a balloon ascension and a parachute jump. Action starts at 8:30 p.m.

McNeil on South Team

Chuck McNeil, Centennial guard, is on the South roster for the annual North-South prep all star game, slated July 27 in the Memorial Coliseum.

Game is under sponsorship of the Shrine and will see 50 of the best high school griders in the state in action.

Lutherans Hold Lead With 2-1 Nod Over Blues

League-leading Lutheran Men came up with a close 2-1 win over the National Blues last week in Blue Streak Softball play to maintain their half-game margin over the second place Fire Department "B" team.

The Firemen won also, smashing the Elks, 11-1. In the third Blue Streaker last week, Local 1135 tripped the cellar-dwelling Walteria Methodists, 9-1.

Luther Stefkes bashed three for four to lead the Lutherans to their seventh league win. They have lost one. The winners totaled 12 hits, while the Blues got five off Lutheran hurler Wayne Branum.

Bob Moffitt pitched the Firemen to their lopsided win over the Elks. Hits were nearly equal with the winners getting 10 safeties and the Elks spraying nine hits in the game.

John Agapito, Al Salceda and Bob Ward had two hits each for the Firemen. Dan Maine hit two for three to pace the losers' hitting.

Hank Weber held the Walteria Methodists to four hits in posting the Union's win.

The losers scored in the top of the seventh, after 1135 had tallied four times in the fourth and five times in the fifth frame.

Legion, Lions Pace Service Loop

Four TORRANCE HERALD JULY 4, 1955

HITTING BRIGADE . . . These four stickmen are being counted by coaches Del Nuzum and Swayne Johnson to lead the Torrance Junior Legion horseshine nine during the team's first season. Although dropped twice last weekend in their debut, the Torrance aggregation has raised its stock since then with the addition of several key players. Left to right, Ray Grieshaber, Jack Anderson, Paul Carrico and Steve Beckett have shown potential as consistent hitters.

Southland Trout Streams Suitable for Stocking

In spite of July 1 closure of some Southern California forest areas as a fire prevention measure, and the seasonal loss of some fishing streams because of poor water conditions, Southland trout anglers still have a wide choice of summer waters on which to pursue their favorite sport.

Not affected by the forest closures and still suitable for planting are some 35 Southern California trout waters in which the Department of Fish and Game will continue to stock catchable-size rainbow at intervals of approximately every week to 10 days.

Since forest conditions are subject to change, stream anglers are advised to inquire at a forest ranger station regarding local fire prevention closures at any given time.

Following is a list of Southern California streams and lakes included in the DFG's summer trout stocking program and expected to remain open to public access:

LOS ANGELES COUNTY—Arroyo Seco Creek (lower section only, accessible by hiking from end of Windsor Ave., northwest Pasadena); Big Rock Creek (south of Valverme on desert side of mountains); Big Tujunga Creek (lower section below dam, north of Sunland); Crystal Lake (2 1/2 miles north of Agua Fria San Gabriel Canyon); Little Rock Reservoir (southwest of Little Rock on desert side of mountains); North Fork San Gabriel River (upstream from Riches Flat); West Fork San Gabriel River (lower section, from mouth upstream to No. 9 dam); Fork San Gabriel River (from mouth upstream to Cattle Canyon Guard Station).

RIVERSIDE COUNTY—Dark Canyon Creek (from Banning-Idyllwild Road upstream to Dark Canyon Camp); Fulmor Lake (on Banning-Idyllwild Road); Hemlock Lake (south of Idyllwild on Highway 78).

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY—Arrowhead Lake (northwest San Bernardino); Big Bear Lake (northwest of San Bernardino and Redlands); Bear Creek outlet of Big Bear Lake (open to fishing from lower Middle River to just below Siam downstream to just below Siam Creek Public Camp); Deep Creek (tributary to Santa Ana River, reached via Barton Flats west of Big Bear); Gregory Lake (near Crestline); Janks Lake (near Lower Middle River, east of Redlands); North Fork and South Fork of Little Rock (north of Fontana); Rainbow Creek (Santa Ana River, from Seven Oaks upstream reached via Barton Flats west of Big Bear); Redlands South Fork Santa Ana River (near end of Santa Ana River, Redlands).

SAN DIEGO COUNTY—Doane Pond (in Palomar Mountain State Park); San Luis Rey River (immediately below outlet of Lake Hemphrey).

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY—Cachuma Reservoir (on Santa Ynez River, 2 1/2 miles northwest of Santa Barbara, reached via Highway 160); Santa Ynez Reservoir (mouth of Santa Ynez River, west of Lompoc; use of boat advised).

VENTURA COUNTY—Deep Cat Lake (at El Rancho Cota, southwest of Ojai); Howard Creek (tributary to Sespe Creek, north of Ojai, access via Lion Canyon Public Camp road); Lockwood Creek (tributary to Fire Creek, access off Highway 98 via Frazier St., Park and Chubbuck Ranger Station); Matilla Reservoir (northwest of Ojai); Fire Creek (upper section, reached via Highway 98 and road to Frenchman's Flats and Gold Hill Guard Station); Guard Creek (1 1/2 miles north of Ojai turn east off Highway 98, continue past Ojens Public Camp for approximately 1 mile, turn right to Reyes Public Camp); Santa Paula Creek (north of Santa Paula); Bear Creek (upper section, in Beaver Dam George area; northwest of Ojai); Wheatley's Lake (on Wheatley's Ranch, north of Ojai).

LEGION NABS TWO SERVICE LEAGUE TILTS

Five losing teams in last week's Service Club softball play could muster only two runs between them, as three shutouts were registered and another forfeit marked the start of second-round play.

Kiwanis couldn't field a team and forfeited to the Junior Chamber.

The Walteria Businessmen edged the Rotarians, 1-0; Legion blanked CSEA, 7-0; Legion beat Rotary, 4-0, and the Lions Club smothered the Optimists, 21-2.

Charging past the rest of the league teams, the Legion and Lions clubs are running one-two in the standings.

The Optimists did better than the other losing teams. They scored two runs and bashed out seven hits in dropping the duke to the Lions.

The winners got 25 hits, with Tex Roberts, Ken Miller, Milt Isbell and Mott Farrell going four each.

Doc Smith pitched the win for Hood Wins Both.

Ross Hood pitched the Legion victory over the Rotary. He gave up six hits, while his mates pounded Mark Moss, Rotary hurler, for 10.

Bruno Giacomi, Legion shortstop, led all hitters with three for three.

Hood also pitched the Legion win over CSEA. He shutout the losers this time on only three hits. Ernie Hobbs got two of the Legion's nine hits.

Wayne Branum was the losing pitcher.

Rotary loses second.

The Rotary Club suffered its second loss of the week when the Walteria Businessmen blanked the Rotarians on four hits.

Nin Woods pitched the win for Walteria. Walterians Ed Sleyth and Bob Wagner led the hit brigade with two apiece.

League play continues tomorrow night at Torrance Park with the Optimists and Kiwanis meeting, and the Rotary and CSEA teams also on the ball.

Wednesday night, Walteria tackled the Lions, and the Legion meets the Chamber in two tussles at Walteria Park.

Tigers Split Pair With Pirate Nine

The Pirates and Tigers traded wins and the Giants whitewashed the Dodgers in American Little League games last week.

Thursday, the Giants and Tigers vie in a loop tilt at 6 p.m. at Little League Park.

A three-run error on a wild throw by Tiger pitcher Curt Probst gave the Pirates the runs they needed for a 7-6 win on Sunday.

Probst had worked carefully to snuff a Pirate rally, but his wild throw on a grounder by Tom Megow cleared the sack.

Probst took the win of Wednesday, however, as the Tigers topped the Pirates, 7-3. Tim Roeltiger's double with two on highlighted a fifth inning rally to break a 3-3 tie.

Dick Gomez hit a three-run homer to get the Tigers off to a 3-0 lead in the third inning.

Mike Challis threw a 7-0 shutout win for the Giants in their game with the Dodgers on Saturday. He also hit a double and single to split hitting honors with teammate Cliff Roy, who had three hits for the winners.
